

Golf in Scotland

The home of Golf for over 500 years

With as many courses as it is old, the 'home of golf' is a great destination to hold a meeting, host an event or reward key people

Golf Courses

Are your clients top executives who regularly play the top courses in the world? Or perhaps your client's require a more relaxed introduction? Consideration for your clients is our primary concern. We have access to world famous courses such as St. Andrews, Carnoustie or Muirfield, as well as resorts such as Turnberry or Gleneagles. Perhaps your client's would prefer a newly designed course such as Trump International Golf Links or a less challenging course for amateur golfers, whatever the brief we can recommend an appropriate venue.

Events & Activities

We can arrange a tailor-made event for a corporate day such as longest drive, nearest pin or beat the pro. We can arrange swing checks and advice by PGA professionals, as well as swing sequence photographs showing a fame by frame breakdown with analysis. Other team building events can include archery, falconry, quad bikes, clay pigeon shooting and white water rafting!

Sightseeing

Famous for its historic castles, beautiful Lochs, stylish shopping, Scotland is the perfect destination to suit everyone. We can arrange a Master Class at a local distillery where you can blend your own whisky, private visits to Castles and a visit to Scotland's most prestigious independent shopping store.

Accommodation & Dining

From exclusive Castles and luxury 5* resorts to lodges and quaint hotels, we can recommend accommodation to suit your clients needs. We can arrange private dining, with cocktail receptions and falconry displays, or award-winning restaurants. Perhaps an evening at the races with VIP hospitality, or an exclusive dinner cruise on one of the stunning Lochs.

Transfers

We can arrange individual luxury cars or executive coaches. Perhaps your clients may wish to transfer by helicopter or we can charter your very own carriage while you take in the breath-taking scenery by rail.
